Biography

Kevin E. Rex provides business and corporate counsel to high net worth individuals, entrepreneurs, corporate executives, privately held businesses, family owned businesses, and mid-market companies in a variety of industries.

Integrating diverse services and wide-ranging skills into his broad corporate, business and real estate practice, Mr. Rex structures, negotiates and handles complex transactions. His more than 20 years at Lewitt Hackman includes hands-on experience in:

- Managing transactions ranging from a few hundred thousand dollars to a hundred million dollars in California, nationally and internationally;
- Structuring, negotiating and drafting documentation relating to mergers and acquisitions, buying and selling businesses, joint ventures, revenue sharing, and other business arrangements;
- Advising clients on shareholder, member, or partner buy-ins and buy-outs, and employment or consulting agreements related thereto;
- Working with clients to resolve shareholder or partnership disputes, as well as other issues relating to multi-party ownership;

- Assisting entrepreneurs with the formation of corporations, partnerships, and limited liability companies, including the financing and continued operation thereof,
- Strategizing with clients on different options and alternatives relating to difficult operational or business decisions;
- Buying, selling and leasing real estate and equipment;
- Structuring, negotiating and drafting documentation relating to distribution arrangements, employment relationships, loan agreements (both personal and business loans), and other contractual matters;
- Licensing intellectual property and other technology to third parties;
- Counseling clients regarding business succession issues as well as the transfer of assets from one generation to the next generation.

Mr. Rex represents Firm clients in all aspects of company ownership in very diverse industries.

After negotiating hundreds of millions of dollars of transactions over the course of his career, Mr. Rex has received numerous honors. Los Angeles Magazine's Super Lawyer Edition named him a Rising Star from 2005-2008 and in 2010-2011. The San Fernando Valley Business Journal selected him as one of the Valley's Most Trusted Advisors, and recognized Mr. Rex as one of the Top 40 Under 40 professionals to watch. He is rated AV 5.0 Preeminent by Martindale-Hubbell, the highest rating awarded by peers of the bar and judiciary for legal ability and ethics.

Mr. Rex presents seminars to business owners and financial professionals on such topics as, "Considerations When Buying and Selling a Business", "How to Protect Your Intellectual Property for Little or No Money", "Estate Planning Myths and Realities", and "Contract Issues for Businesses". He also publishes numerous articles in the Los Angeles Daily Journal, The San Fernando Valley Business Journal, and other Southern California publications.

Mr. Rex is a member of the State Bar of California, the San Fernando Valley Bar Association, the Los Angeles County Bar Association, the American Bar Association and Provisors.

He served as a Member of the Board of Trustees of the San Fernando Valley Bar Association (the SFVBA) for four years, as the Chairman of the Barrister's Section of the SFVBA for three years, and as a chair of the Membership and Marketing Committee of the SFVBA for two years. He has been a member of Provisors since June 2006 and has served on the executive committees of both the Encino II and Westlake I groups of Provisors.

For a number of years, Mr. Rex was also a Member of the Board of Directors of the Valley Community Legal Foundation (VCLF) of the SFVBA. He served multiple years on the Fundraising Committee of the VCFL and served multiple years as the Chairman of Sponsorships for the annual Law Day Gala.

Currently, Mr. Rex is a member of the Alliance of Mergers & Acquisitions Advisors, which is a premier international organization servicing the needs of M&A advisors in the middle market.
