Biography

Wanjia (Olivia) Li is an associate attorney in our Trusts & Estate Planning Practice Group.

Ms. Li focuses her practice on a broad range of trusts and estates matters. She advises and assists individuals and families in navigating complex trust and estates planning matters and developing customized and comprehensive estate and wealth transfer plans.

Ms. Li regularly works on Probate, Guardianship, Conservatorship and Post Death Trust Administration matters.

Ms. Li graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Education from Xi'an International Studies University in 2015. Following her undergraduate studies, she pursued her legal education in the United States, earning her Juris Doctor with a Certificate in Transactional Law and Skills from Emory University School of Law in 2020. During her time at Emory, Ms. Li was an active member of the Tax Law Society and contributed to research on juvenile criminal justice systems.

Before joining Lewitt Hackman, Ms. Li worked as a trusts and estates attorney at a boutique firm in South Bay.

Ms. Li is licensed to practice in California and is a native Mandarin speaker.
