THE MOST INFLUENTIAL LEADERS IN THE VALLEY AREA 2018

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR AND PUBLISHER

ou may have heard the old saying that if you really need to get something done, assign the task to a busy person.

I always thought that vintage saw rang true; busy people are the ones who, to put it plainly, get stuff done.

The pages in this book are full of busy people. I don't mean busy with mundane duties, but busy in the sense of being driven to accomplish big things, important things, quickly. You'll notice that immediately when you read their profiles. Some of them have started businesses or have risen to leadership positions in their organizations. Many serve on civic, nonprofit or professional boards and commissions, and a surprising number are on multiple boards at once. More than a few have won notable awards or hit significant mileposts – some in different disciplines. Some have done all of the above.

These are our leaders, the people of accomplishment, the busy ones who get stuff done throughout the five-Valley area. They are the most influential people in our area. We are pleased to identify them so as to give them a nod of appreciation. After all, we rely on them. Yes, they may be very busy already. But when we really need to get something done, they are the select few, the influential ones we ask for help because we know they are the people of accomplishment.

And finally, this: I believe our list of influential people is a very good one. But it's not perfect. Leadership is always evolving. If you know anyone who's an emerging leader, or perhaps an established one we overlooked, let me know. I'd be pleased to consider them next year. You can reach me at ccrumpley@sfvbj.com.

Sincerely,

Charles Crumpley

DAVID ADELMAN Greenberg & Bass

David Adelman, 63, is a partner at Greenberg & Bass, an Encino-based law firm, where he focusses his practice on corporate, real estate and intellectual property transactions. For his clients, he develops business strategies, provides business counsel and structures, negotiates and documents business deals, all aimed at helping them achieve their business and personal goals. His clients include entrepreneurs, start-ups and companies and other organizations of various sizes in various industries. Adelman served internships at the California Supreme Court and the American Civil Liberties Union. He holds community service in high regard, and is on several nonprofit boards, such as the Valley Industry and Commerce Association, where he is a past chair; Valley Presbyterian Hospital, New Horizons and Fit 4 The Cause.

FAVORITE BOOK: "Goodnight Moon." Wonderful bedtime story memories with my kids.

BEST WORK TIME: Anytime after a "venti" redeye (coffee with an espresso shot... No cream).

IF NOT THIS CAREER: Late night talk show host.

BEST ABOUT VALLEY AREA: The fact that the valley is a vibrant city

AND THE WORST: The traffic or the summer heat . . . you pick.

MARY AKPOVI
Martini, Iosue & Akpovi

Mary Akpovi, 67, is a partner with the accounting firm of Martini, Iosue & Akpovi in Encino. Akpovi is a certified public accountant with focus on tax and consulting in the areas of estate planning, mergers and acquisitions and international operations. She holds a doctorate in business administration and a master's in business taxation from the University of Southern California, along with a master's in business administration from Santa Clara University. Akpovi devotes significant time to volunteering with various local and foreign charities that serve women, orphans and the homeless. She has sat on the boards of Exceptional Children Foundation and the Valley Rescue Mission and received the Business Journal's Award for Lifetime Achievement at the Women's Council in April.

FAVORITE BOOK: "The Hope Quotient: Measure It. Raise It. You'll Never Be the Same" by Ray Johnston.

BEST WORK TIME: 5 - 7 p.m. Less interruptions.

IF NOT THIS CAREER: Educational advocacy to ensure that education is not one-size-fits-all.

BEST ABOUT VALLEY AREA: It is very diverse, full of life and has all the vital amenities.

AND THE WORST: It can be very hot and is getting congested.

LEE KANON ALPERT

Alpert, Barr & Grant

Lee Kanon Alpert, 71, an attorney, arbitrator and mediator, is a founding member and senior of counsel to the law firm of Alpert, Barr & Grant in Encino. He also is the president and founding member of Alpert Dispute Resolution and Consulting Inc. He is a past president and current member of the governing board of Providence Health and Services hospitals. Alpert is past president of the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power board of commissioners; past president of Los Angeles City Department of Building and Safety Department; First President of Neighborhood Empowerment; a past commissioner of Los Angeles World Airports; a past chair and current and founding board member of Genesis L.A., which raises money to assist development of blighted urban areas; serves on the advisory board of governors for the Valley Industry and Commerce Association; and is on the advisory boards of the Valley Economic Alliance and New Directions for Youth. Alpert is past president of the San Fernando Valley Bar and a recipient of the Fernando Award for lifetime achievement.

FAVORITE BOOK: "Don't Sweat the Small Stuff." It helps get you through daily life during difficult times.

BEST WORK TIME: 6 - 9 a.m. I have full focus on what I am doing. IF NOT THIS CAREER: So many interest me. I would have loved to be a professional athlete (football, hockey, etc). Have loved and still love teaching. Would very much enjoy professional newscaster and interviewer.

BEST ABOUT VALLEY AREA: Still a very close community with lots of relationships. Great medical care and other professionals close by.

AND THE WORST: Traffic, still way too much crime, and poor and homeless.

SUE M. BENDAVIDLewitt, Hackman, Shapiro, Marshall & Harlan

Sue Bendavid, 55, is chair of the employment practice group at the Lewitt, Hackman, Shapiro, Marshall & Harlan law firm in Encino. For more than 28 years, she has exclusively represented employers in their legal matters. She is a strong proponent of employee claims prevention via management training and clearly established company policies. Adept in prelitigation counseling and advocacy as well as depositions, discovery, motions, trials and appeals, Bendavid has obtained favorable rulings and dismissals in all stages of litigation in a variety of jurisdictions. She also is co-chair of the Labor and Employment Committee of the Valley Industry and Commerce Association.

FAVORITE BOOK: There are so many. I don't have just one. I really enjoy historical fiction.

BEST WORK TIME: I am definitely an "early bird." I typically get up at 5:30 and am already responding to email and working by 6:15 or so.

IF NOT THIS CAREER: Three possible choices: a university or law school professor; corporate trainer for employers and their managers and staff; and a judge.

BEST ABOUT VALLEY AREA: I am a "Valley girl," having been raised here. I like the wide streets, the greenery of the trees and parks and that it's relatively easy to know where you are.

AND THE WORST: The traffic. Though I suppose it is worse in other parts of Los Angeles.
