Ask Super Lawyers®

What distinguishes a certified family law specialist from other family law attorneys in California?

California is one of a few states that provide a specialization program administered by The State Bar of California. This program elevates already experienced counsel by requiring advanced studies and the passing of a second bar exam devoted exclusively to their specific field of law. In addition to the requirement of passing the bar exam, attorneys must be endorsed by members of the judiciary and other members of the bar in their specific field. Their competence must be vetted by family law judges and attorneys alike. This certification is reviewed and renewed by the Bar every few years. In this manner, a certified specialist is held to a higher standard of expertise and knowledge of family law, and as a consequence, they provide more in-depth representation to the public.
