MAY 2020 Coronavirus Response

Dear Clients and Friends:

All of our various Practice Groups are actively guiding clients through many unique legal issues arising out of the COVID-19 Pandemic, including:

- CARES Act
- Paycheck Protection Program loans and forgiveness
- Corporate (impact on Mergers & Acquisitions, recently acquired companies, start-ups)
- Employment issues (including telecommuting, paid leave, wage and hour, and potential layoff scenarios)
- Landlord, Tenant and other Contractual issues (obligations, enforcement, force majeure clauses, and business interruption insurance)
- Litigation and Personal Injury (pursuing and defending claims, and resolving disputes during a period of limited access to courts)
- Family Law (spousal and child support)
- Environmental (compliance during the crisis)
- Franchise & Intellectual Property (eligibility for PPP loans, renewing during the crisis)
- Tax and Estate Planning (tax impacts of various government programs, estate planning during a crisis)

In addition, our attorneys are busy writing articles and blogs, conducting webinars, and being interviewed by various media sources on all aspects of COVID-19 legal issues.
