

Lewitt Hackman Renews 23,404 SQFT Office Lease in Encino

February 24, 2023

LOS ANGELES – JLL announced today that Lewitt Hackman has renewed its 23,404 - square-foot lease at 16633 Ventura Boulevard in Encino, California. Lewitt Hackman will continue to use the space for its law offices, maintaining the same amount of space with a 70-80 percent attendance daily.

“Our Encino office continues to provide our attorneys, support staff, and clients with outstanding services and amenities,” said Keith Zimmet, President and Managing Shareholder of Lewitt Hackman. “As part of our renewal, we intend to perform extensive modernization of our space to ensure that it continues to provide such services for an increasingly agile workforce and client base well into the future.”

JLL’s Bryan Lewitt and Chris Isola represented Lewitt Hackman in the lease. The landlord, Ventura-Petit East, LLC, represented itself.

“This office is centrally located for Lewitt Hackman employees and its clients,” said Bryan Lewitt, JLL Managing Director. “The company has seen growth in several practice groups with healthcare business being a key driver.”

Isola continued by saying “we expect more and more companies to move forward in 2023 on finalizing plans for their long-term office space.”
